PUBLIC HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

Temple Entry—Prohibition to those with the 3rd Grade of Leprosy. Public Health Department, Madras District, for entry by the enclosed notice-board.

For St. George, October 18, 1939.

No. 803.

The following Order is published for the general information of the public:

G.O. NO. 21, 1939, P.H., DATED 18th OCTOBER 1939.

Under section 8 of the Madras Temple Entry Restriction and Exemption Act, 1925 (Madras Act XXIV of 1925), the Executive Government of Madras in 1939 passed an order to approve the petition of the Executive Officer, the 3rd Grade of Leprosy, to prohibit entry, to those with the 3rd Grade of Leprosy, to the temple, Madras district, in the event of 3rd Grade of Leprosy being notified by the Government, entry into or offer of worship in the said temple.

(By order of His Excellency the Governor)

C. H. COOPER,
Secretary to Government.
